APPOINTMENT OF EXPLORATION MANAGER

Redbank Copper Limited (ASX: RCP) is pleased to advise that Mr. John Ceplecha M.App.Sc, MAusIMM, has taken up the position of Exploration Manager with Redbank, following the recent resignation of Mr. Craig Hall.

John has diverse experience with over 20 years in senior positions with companies such as DeBeers, Freeport, Rio Tinto, Flinders Mines and Cameco. He has been involved in exploration, project development and evaluation at various levels for a range of commodities including diamonds, gold, base metals, rare earths, iron ore and uranium throughout Australia, Africa, China and New Zealand. His experience of particular advantage to Redbank included the identification of pipe-like targets which led to the discovery of new diamond-bearing kimberlite pipes, and gold-silver breccia structures.

The appointment coincides with the scheduled preparation for Redbank Copper's 2011 Exploration Programme.
